Clothing and Equipment List

CLOTHING lower body

Shoes

Sturdy high-top closed-toe shoes are the best. Try to avoid wearing sandals to prevent cuts and scrapes.

Pants & shorts

Bring loose fitting pants and/or shorts that allow you to move around. Avoid tight fitting non-stretchy clothing.

CLOTHING upper body

Shirts for warm weather

In addition to your short sleeve T-Shirt you might want consider bringing long sleeve cotton button up shirt for sun protection.

Light weight synthetic layer

For cool/cold weather bring a light weight synthetic or wool top that is long sleeve.

Rain protection

A light weight WATERPROOF (not resistant) jacket. Sealed nylon is preferable.

EQUIPMENT

DAY PACK

Bring a pack big enough to pack all your personal clothing and climbing gear. You will want to have your hands free while hiking to the climbing area.

SUNGLASSES

With keeper strings like Chums.

SUN SCREEN

A must item!

FOOD

Bring plenty of lunch because you may work up an appetite.

WATER

There is usually no water where we climb so bring at least 2 Quarts. We recommend bringing 3-4 quarts when it's hot. Remember water is the solvent of life!

CAMERA and film

Bring as much off the list as you can!
